

Tech Lab: Media, Design and Technology in Italy

Tech Lab: Media, Design and TechnologyTech Lab: Media, Design and TechnologyTech Lab: Media, Design and Technology Previous Next

The tech lab focuses on new technologies for a connected digital world and smart cities. You will learn about innovation from a technical point of view but also with considerations of human culture, or design, and communications. Courses will present a European or Mediterranean perspective on progress, aimed not for newness value but to benefit human stakeholders and reduce our negative impact on the environment.
