

Addressing the future of study abroad in Italy-how do we stay relevant?

On Thursday March 5, 2015, Sonia Massari, representing the AACUPI member institution, University of Illinois at Urbana- Champaign, gave a speech in the conference entitled 'Addressing the future of study abroad in Italy-how do we stay relevant?' and organized by hosted by Temple University Rome on behalf of AACUPI . Thank you to Hilary Link and Portia Prebys for organizing the conference.