HWS FACULTY-LED PROGRAMS IN ROME

The HWS faculty-led program includes a faculty-led component, which offers one or more courses on art, architecture, sculpture, anthropology, tourism, imaging or travel-writing. The courses vary every semester based on the faculty that leads the program. Students also take an Italian language and culture course which build upon the foundation of Italian language study completed at HWS prior to the program. A variety of visits to local sites complement in-class instruction and a series of “labs” introduce students to various aspects of Italian culture and society. Students with more advanced Italian skills are placed in an upper-level class. Language Courses provider: Scuola Leonardo da Vinci Rome. Students live in shared apartments in the Rome city center experiencing daily Roman life like the majority of Italian university students, which allows them to pass from the status of foreign tourist/student to the more conscious and knowledge “resident” in Rome. HWS students should apply directly through the HWS Global Education Office

Past faculty include Professors Jim Capreedy, Walter Bowyer, Ted Aub, Gabriella D’Angelo, Cheryl Forbes, Patricia and Stan Matthews, Kristen Welsh, Liliana Leopaldi, Kirin Makker, Jeffrey Blankenship, Christine Chin, Michael Tinkler, Nick Ruth and Leah Himmelhoch
