

Fall Programs Starting Soon

Gustolab International is happy to welcome students from Hobart and William Smith Colleges who will be studying in Rome with us this fall. The rich program comprises courses in Photography, Visual Culture and Sustainability and will take the group of fortunate students and their professor to exciting destination around Rome, Naples and the Veneto.