

Study and Intern Abroad

ITALY

Rome is an open-air museum. Spending time getting lost in the backstreets of the historical center, talking to local people to learn about their culture, and tasting typical Roman food will give you a chance to understand the city's atmosphere.

Experience Rome with us through our study abroad programs in the spring, summer, and fall semesters. We also have internship programs in Rome and in various parts of Italy.

JAPAN

Japanese cuisine, or Washoku, offers invaluable opportunities to think about the intersection of the modern and traditional, local and global, rural and urban, nature and society, taste and waste, our future and sustainability. The program is based in the city of Osaka “the food capital of Japan”.
