

World Sustainable Development Teach-In Day 2020

Gustolab International is participating in the World Sustainable Development Teach-In Day 2020.

This decade-long global movement aims to raise and spread awareness of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) at the grassroots level by focusing on sustainable education and to infuse sustainability thinking into current education systems.

Register at the central website www.dl4sd.org and enroll in the World Sustainable Development Teach-In Day 2020.
